Society of Local Council Clerks (SLCC) is the professional body for local council clerks and senior council employees in England and Wales.

We ensure that our members are equipped with the necessary knowledge, training and skills to thrive within their role and best support their council and community.

Founded in 1972 and celebrating our 50th anniversary in 2022, SLCC has gone from strength to strength, starting with just 50 members and now representing clerks to over 5,000 parish, town and community councils.

Whether you seek expert advice, to develop your professional career or simply build relationships with your fellow clerks, we can offer you the support and recognition you deserve.

'I would just like to record my appreciation of the support and help I have received over the years from SLCC; the role of a clerk can be very solitary as we face varied challenges and I would have found it incredibly difficult without the advice and assistance that I have been given from SLCC, so many thanks to you all, it has been much appreciated.'

The Staffordshire branch of SLCC has been a source of friendship and useful knowledge and this has been invaluable.' Liz Harrington-Jones, former clerk to Chebsey Parish Council

"I am glad to be a member and I would say that any clerk ought to belong to the SLCC as a matter of course. Membership of one's professional body is just one of those things that should be automatic – it is a constant source of information and fellow-feeling and you never know when you will need more substantive support." David O'Driscoll, clerk to Forest Row Parish Council, SLCC member since 2015

Making your Case for Membership

We understand that your council may not realise the benefit of your professional membership and, furthermore, appreciate why the council should subsidise the cost of the subscription. The following information can be utilized to help your council to understand the value of membership:

Under what power may councils pay the subscription of their clerk to SLCC?

The Local Government Act 1972 s 143 (1) (b) states that, 'a local Authority may pay reasonable subscriptions, whether annually or otherwise, to the funds of any association of officers or members of local authorities which was so formed.'

Do many councils pay the SLCC subscriptions of their clerk under these powers?

The majority of SLCC members have their subscriptions paid by their council under this power.

Well that's all very well but you would say that wouldn't you. Who else agrees with you?

National Association of Local Council (NALC), Local Government Association (LGA) the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) now known as the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities (DLUHC).

'Your clerk (and the council) benefit if the clerk is a member of the SLCC. The SLCC provides legal, financial and other advice, a useful training pack and considerable support and guidance from the clerks' network. Your council may wish to pay the clerk's subscription to the SLCC. There is also information available on the SLCC website www.slcc.co.uk.' As stated in the Good Councillors Guide 2018.

Okay but isn't SLCC in competition with NALC and the County Associations which represents councils?

No. SLCC and NALC (on behalf of itself and County Associations) signed a Strategic Partnership statement in 2017 which established, among other things, that:

'NALC and SLCC are clear in their support for councils to be members of their county associations and NALC and for clerks to be members of the SLCC and active in their county branches. In that way councils get the best possible support for the professional development of clerks; and training and advice for councils and councillors.

NALC and SLCC will work together to raise the sector's reputation with the public, with Government, and with other national and local stakeholders and to ensure that government and other policies support local councils to help local communities.'
