For Local Council Professionals ®

Join our Community

Society of Local Council Clerks (SLCC) is the professional body for local council clerks and senior council employees in England and Wales.

We ensure that our members are equipped with the necessary knowledge, training and skills to thrive within their role and best support their council and community.

Founded in 1972 and celebrating our 50th anniversary in 2022, SLCC has gone from strength to strength, starting with just 50 members and now representing clerks to over 5,000 parish, town and community councils.

Whether you seek expert advice, to develop your professional career or simply build relationships with your fellow clerks, we can offer you the support and recognition you deserve.

'I have worked for the Parish Council for a number of years and finally I have taken the plunge to retire!

SLCC has been an excellent organisation which has offered support to me over many years of service, providing advice and motivation towards carrying out the important roles of Clerk & RFO.

SLCC will no doubt continue to provide good support, training and assistance especially to new entrants! All good wishes to the society and its members for the future.'

Jan Capon, Former RFO to Loose Parish Council

'I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and the full SLCC team all the very best for the future both professionally and personally. It's my view from my many years of membership that you all do an outstanding and invaluable job in the services that you undertake and offer to all local council's.

I had the privilege to be active with SLCC locally, regionally and also nationally as a former NEC member - I even attended an IIMC event in Nashville in 2011 with the UK SLCC delegation!!

Many rewarding memories over the years and much to be appreciative for to SLCC - please continue the fine work, needed more than ever at this challenging time for all involved in delivering public services at a very local level.'

Making your Case for Membership

We understand that your council may not realise the benefit of your professional membership and, furthermore, appreciate why the council should subsidise the cost of the subscription. The following information can be utilized to help your council to understand the value of membership:

Under what power may councils pay the subscription of their clerk to SLCC?

The Local Government Act 1972 s 143 (1) (b) states that, 'a local Authority may pay reasonable subscriptions, whether annually or otherwise, to the funds of any association of officers or members of local authorities which was so formed.

Do many councils pay the SLCC subscriptions of their clerk under these powers?

The majority of SLCC members have their subscriptions paid by their council under this power.

Well that's all very well but you would say that wouldn't you. Who else agrees with you?

National Association of Local Council (NALC), Local Government Association (LGA) the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) now known as the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities (DLUHC).

'Your clerk (and the council) benefit if the clerk is a member of the SLCC. The SLCC provides legal, financial and other advice, a useful training pack and considerable support and guidance from the clerks' network. Your council may wish to pay the clerk's subscription to the SLCC. There is also information available on the SLCC website www.slcc.co.uk.' As stated in the Good Councillors Guide 2018.

Okay but isn't SLCC in competition with NALC and the County Associations which represents councils?

No. SLCC and NALC (on behalf of itself and County Associations) signed a Strategic Partnership statement in 2017 which established, among other things, that:

'NALC and SLCC are clear in their support for councils to be members of their county associations and NALC and for clerks to be members of the SLCC and active in their county branches. In that way councils get the best possible support for the professional development of clerks; and training and advice for councils and councillors.

NALC and SLCC will work together to raise the sector's reputation with the public, with Government, and with other national and local stakeholders and to ensure that government and other policies support local councils to help local communities.'
